

Building Security

The United States Marshals Service and the Court Security Officers (CSO) have the responsibility to maintain a safe and secure environment for everyone in the building. Therefore, all visitors and their property are subject to search and inspection.

Metal Detectors:

All visitors must pass through a metal detector to enter the building. In order to facilitate this process, please be aware of the following:

- Picture ID is required to enter the building.
- No weapons of any type are allowed.
- No knives, scissors or anything with a cutting edge may be brought into the building.
- No cell phones* or cameras** are allowed.
- Remove jewelry, watches, large earrings, etc., and empty pockets before proceeding through the metal detector. Place these items in your bags or place them on the trays provided by the CSO before passing through the metal detector. Do not touch the sides of the metal detector while walking through the metal detector.

* STANDING ORDER RE: WIRELESS COMMUNICATION DEVICES.

** Cameras & Recording Equipment - Pursuant to LR Civ P 83.10, taking photographs in the courtroom or in the corridors immediately adjacent to the courtroom during judicial proceedings or during any recess and the transmitting or sound recording of proceedings for broadcast by radio or television is not permitted. Upon approval of the court and under its supervision, proceedings other than judicial proceedings designed and conducted as ceremonies, such as administering oaths of office to appointed officials of the court, presentation of portraits, naturalization proceedings, and similar ceremonial occasions, may be photographed in or broadcast from the courtroom. Pursuant to LR Civ P 83.11, the CSO or Marshal may impound any camera, recording, broadcasting and other related equipment brought into the courtroom or the adjacent corridors in violation of LR Civ P 83.10. The impounded equipment will be returned to its owner or custodians after the proceedings have concluded.
