IN RE: NATIONAL DAY OF MOURNING December 5, 2018	GENERAL ORDER NO. 18-04 JUDGE FRANK W. VOLK, CHIEF BANKRUPTCY JUDGE

ORDER

By Executive Order, President Trump has declared Wednesday, December 5, 2018, a National Day of Mourning to honor the memory of former President George Herbert Walker Bush. The President's Executive Order declares that December 5, 2018, will be treated as a holiday for federal leave purposes. Following the lead of the executive branch, the Supreme Court of the United States will be in recess and the Administrative Office will be closed that day.

In observance of the National Day of Mourning, except for bankruptcy hearings which will be held as scheduled, the offices of the Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of West Virginia will generally be closed for business on Wednesday, December 5, 2018. Bankruptcy hearings set for Wednesday, December 5, 2018, will be held as scheduled. Bankruptcy court staff, including chambers staff, who are required to work on that day, shall be granted eight (8) hours of administrative leave.
